JUDGING & AWARDS

1. A panel of three main judges and a possible fourth alternate judge will judge each competition. The fourth judge may be a judge in training. The score of the three main judges will be used; but if a judge has an entry in the competition, the score from the alternate judge will be used instead.
2. Guest judges are encouraged, but must be members of the photographic or art community and are familiar with judging.
3. Judges will be expected to EVALUATE each photograph based on the following:
 - 1 - 3 points - Impact
 - 1 - 3 points - Composition
 - 1 - 3 points - TechniqueA perfect score would be 27 points (9 points per judge).
4. Slides, B&W prints, color prints, digitally projected manipulated images & digitally projected non-manipulated images will be judged in separate groups (5 groups). Titles will not be read aloud as judging is being done. The entries will be viewed as the judges record their scores, which are then recorded by the committee. Titles for winning entries will be read when winners are announced. Scores will be made available after the judging is complete.
5. The score recorders will then tabulate the scores for that group. In case of ties in scoring, all photos with the highest score will receive a First Place award. The same rule applies for Second, Third Places and Honorable Mentions.
6. The entries will be critiqued at random by the judges when time permits.
7. Ribbons will be awarded to the first three places and the Honorable Mentions.
8. When a guest judge is present, an additional Honorable Mention-the "INVITATIONAL" - will be awarded. For this award, the guest judge selects one entry deserving of an outstanding honor and submits the name of the entry to the Competition Chairperson before the end of the evening. The chairperson will then announce the winner of the Invitational and award a suitable certificate or ribbon.
9. The Competition Chairperson will tabulate each competitor's score in all the year's competitions to determine the annual awards. This will be the point system for each winner:
 - 4 points - First Place & Invitational
 - 3 points - Second Place
 - 2 points - Third Place
 - 1 point - Honorable Mention
